2020 Reunion Update
March 22, 2020

To all our members attending or planning to attend the 2020 Annual Reunion.

With the ever-changing news coming from Washington and our various State Governors, we wanted to give you an update on the upcoming Reunion.

The Caribe Royale has recently closed and will remain closed until May 1st. This action is not limited to Caribe, but many of the hotels in the Orlando and surrounding areas. All of the Disney hotels have closed as well as Hyatt and other large flagged hotels all with a scheduled re-opening date of May 1st.

While these actions are slightly unnerving for your Reunion planning team, we believe that the 2020 Reunion will still go on. We can certainly understand that the idea of cancelling has crossed your mind, but we ask that you please wait until we get closer to the Reunion dates and see what is happening at that point in time. Afterall, by the time the end of June arrives, with the Coronavirus in our rearview mirrors, we will need our time with our Zonian family more than ever.

We will provide additional updates as news that may impact our Reunion comes about. In the meantime, we hope and pray that you and your families remain unaffected by the virus and that we will see you at the Reunion in Orlando in June!
